PICK FAIRY QUEEN FOR ASBURY PARK

Carnival Board Chooses Miss Mildred Morgan of Indianapolis for Honor.

WILL BE TITANIA XV.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 14.—The question as to who would rule over the fairy kingdom of Asbury Park during the silver jubilee celebration of the carnival was settled last night by an announcement made at the Princess's ball in the Arcade Pier. Miss Mildred Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan of 124 North Meridian avenue, Indianapolis, is the young lady selected to be Queen Titania XV. She was 21 years old a week ago to-day and is a brunette. She is a member of the senior class of Denison University and was the Princess Cinderella in Asbury's royal court during the season of 1913. She is spending the summer at the Lafayette Hotel, which will be her royal castle during the next month.

The selection was kept a secret by Mayor C. E. F. Hetrick and the members of the carnival commission with considerable difficulty. The young lady was so busy during the week with costumes and her court ladies that she had no opportunity to talk with friends and did her part in keeping the secret until the formal announcement was made last night.

Miss Virginia Hope Kelley, who has reigned during the past year as Queen Titania XIV, attended the ball and turned over her crown and scepter to her successor. More than 2,500 persons witnessed the ceremony.

Following the announcement as to who would reign, the identity of four maids of her court was also made known. They are Miss Elsie Gray, daughter of L. A. Gray of the Bond Manufacturing Company of Fifth avenue and Fifth avenue, New York.

Miss Gray is a blond and only 17 years of age. Another is Miss Marita McCulloch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCulloch of 1818 E. 10th street, New York. She is a brunette and 18 years of age. The last member of the court to be announced is Miss Grussilla Taylor, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Taylor of New York. She is a blonde and 18 years of age.

The guest of honor at the silver jubilee baby parade, which will be held Wednesday, August 25, will be Miss Mary Pickford, "Queen of the Movies."

She will occupy a special box at the right of the queen's throne and will also contain the dignitaries who are visiting this city, including the Ambassadors from Chile and the Argentine and the Cuban Minister, with their families.

Other features of the silver jubilee carnival celebration will be the coronation of Queen Titania XV, which will take place on August 18, and a masque fete, which will be held along the boardwalk and in the hotels on the 21st.

Lyle Kinnomoth and L. R. Hetrick, members of the Chamber of Commerce and Bankers Association, left for California this week to try to secure the conventions of the National Educational Association and American Institute of Bankers for this fall in 1916. They will attend the convention in California and distribute material setting forth the attractions of this resort.

The diplomatic ball at the New Monmouth Hotel, which is in honor of the diplomats stopping at the hotel, was one of the leading social events of the week. Members of society from Spring Lake, Long Branch, Seabright and other neighboring resorts, numbering more than 1,000, were in attendance.

There will be a sacred concert in the music room of the New Monmouth Hotel to-morrow evening, and Miss Alma Walling, soprano, will be the soloist. Fifty cards have been sent out.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Faust of Brooklyn, who are season guests at the Metropolitan, accompanied by their daughters, Misses Rose and Anna, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bell of New York, made up a fishing party to Barnegat Bay on Tuesday, returning with eighty-five fish.

The Lafayette Hotel, which will be known as the "Queen's Palace" for the balance of the season, entertained with a dance this evening in honor of the announced "queen," Miss Mildred Morgan. At midnight supper was served to Miss Morgan and eighteen of her court ladies.

Among the dancers at an informal party given by Miss Virginia Kelley at the Plaza last evening were Mrs. F. Wall, Miss M. Edwards, Mrs. M. J. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Key, Miss Edna Green, Miss Ethel Jones, Mrs. George W. Hamilton and William Bradley.

Bradley Beach.

BRADLEY BEACH, N. J., Aug. 14.—The leading social event of the week here was the dance held in the ballroom of the Bradley Hotel this afternoon in aid of the Children's Day society of New York. It was attended by the entire cottage colony of this and neighboring resorts as well as by Mayor William E. MacDonald and the commissioners.

An amusing incident of the week was the holding up of Gov. James F. Fielder by a mob of about 100 persons at the speed limit. The Governor contended that this was not the case and convinced the officer to his way of thinking.

The annual benefit for the life saving crews will be held in Danceland Hall on August 25.

The arrivals this week include: Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Levy, Miss Levy and Louis Mills of New York.

Sea Cliff—James Siegel, Miss Emma Siegel, Miss Siegel and Miss Klein of New York.

Beach House—Clifton P. Jones, Miss Minnie George, Miss Lena George, Mrs. J. W. George and George F. Bird of New York.

Lakewood—Mr. and Mrs. L. Van Praag, Miss Van Praag, Eugene Crane and Miss Venn of New York.

Other features of the silver jubilee carnival celebration will be the coronation of Queen Titania XV, which will take place on August 18, and a masque fete, which will be held along the boardwalk and in the hotels on the 21st.

Lyle Kinnomoth and L. R. Hetrick, members of the Chamber of Commerce and Bankers Association, left for California this week to try to secure the conventions of the National Educational Association and American Institute of Bankers for this fall in 1916. They will attend the convention in California and distribute material setting forth the attractions of this resort.

The diplomatic ball at the New Monmouth Hotel, which is in honor of the diplomats stopping at the hotel, was one of the leading social events of the week. Members of society from Spring Lake, Long Branch, Seabright and other neighboring resorts, numbering more than 1,000, were in attendance.

There will be a sacred concert in the music room of the New Monmouth Hotel to-morrow evening, and Miss Alma Walling, soprano, will be the soloist. Fifty cards have been sent out.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Faust of Brooklyn, who are season guests at the Metropolitan, accompanied by their daughters, Misses Rose and Anna, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bell of New York, made up a fishing party to Barnegat Bay on Tuesday, returning with eighty-five fish.

The Lafayette Hotel, which will be known as the "Queen's Palace" for the balance of the season, entertained with a dance this evening in honor of the announced "queen," Miss Mildred Morgan. At midnight supper was served to Miss Morgan and eighteen of her court ladies.

Among the dancers at an informal party given by Miss Virginia Kelley at the Plaza last evening were Mrs. F. Wall, Miss M. Edwards, Mrs. M. J. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Key, Miss Edna Green, Miss Ethel Jones, Mrs. George W. Hamilton and William Bradley.
